4. THE FINANCIAL ADVICE PROCESS

If you wish to utilise our services, you may contact your adviser by telephone or email, or via any other method as may be mutually agreed.

We recognise that the objectives and personal circumstances of each client are different.

When we provide personal advice, we will listen to you to understand your objectives and circumstances. We will also ask questions to make sure we provide advice which is in your best interests.

When we provide personal advice to you it will be explained and documented in a Statement of Advice which you can take away and read.

The Statement of Advice will explain the basis for our advice, the main risks associated with the advice, the cost to you of implementing the advice, the benefits we receive and any conflicts of interest which may influence the advice.

For financial products other than securities, we will provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement. This contains information to help you understand the product being recommended.

At all times you are able to contact us and ask questions about our advice and products we recommend.

You can provide instructions to us in writing, via phone or via email. In some cases, we may require you to provide signed instructions.

We may provide further advice to you to keep your plan up to date for changes in your circumstances, changes in the law and changes in the economy and products.

Once you have been provided with a SOA, further advice may be provided to you in a Record of Advice. Records of Advice are issued when there has been no change in your personal circumstances or the basis of the advice set out in the SOA.

We retain all SOAs and ROAs for at least seven years and you may request a copy of the SOA or ROA at any time within that period. This request may be verbal or in writing.

You should not act on any recommendation after thirty (30) days of the date of the SOA without your adviser's written confirmation that our recommendations are still suited to you.

No responsibility will be taken for any advice acted on after thirty (30) days without your adviser's separate written confirmation that the advice is still suited to you.

We will not be responsible for any losses connected to our advice if it is not implemented by us, if you do not engage us as your adviser or if you cease to engage us as your adviser.

5. OUR FEES AND CHARGES

Advice Fees

Securus Retirement Solutions, on behalf of your adviser, will charge a fee for service for providing financial advice and implementation services, if required.

We will endeavor to explain all fees payable by you prior to any advice or product being recommended to you and an invoice will be provided to you.

6. ASSOCIATIONS AND RELATIONSHIPS WHICH MAY AFFECT OUR ADVICE

There are no relationships that will influence your adviser's advice to you in any way.
